

2011 SSWR Awards

Distinguished Career Achievement Award	Yehekel Hasenfeld, PhD, University of California, Los Angeles
Rosen Lecture for SSWR 2011 Annual Conference	John Brekke, University of Southern California
Excellence in Research Award	Ron Avi Astor, PhD, University of Southern California, "School Violence and Theoretically Atypical Schools: The Principal's Centrality in Orchestrating Safe Schools", American Educational Research Journal; 46, 423-461
Outstanding Social Work Dissertation Award	Eric Garland, PhD, The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, "Biopsychosocial Assessment of a Mindfulness-Oriented Cognitive Intervention for Alcohol Dependent Adults"
Outstanding Social Work Dissertation Award Honorable Mentions	Amy Chanmugam, PhD, The University of Texas at Austin, "Perspectives of Young Adolescent and Mother-Dyads Residing in Family Violence Shelters: A Qualitative Study Using Life Story Methods" Antonio Garcia, PhD, University of Washington, "Maltreated, Displaced, and Under-Served Foster Youth: Predictors of Developmental Outcomes Among Racially Diverse Foster Care Alumni"
Deborah K. Padgett Early Career Award	Michal Grinstein-Weiss, PhD, The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill
Doctoral Fellows Award	Lea Tufford, University of Toronto, "Clinician Mandatory Reporting and Maintenance of the Therapeutic Alliance" Carrie Pettus-Davis, The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, "Support Matters": A Randomized Controlled Pilot Trial of a Social Support Intervention for Recently Released Prisoners with Substance Use Disorders"